HITCHCOCK, AFTER SURRENDER, PLAYS HIS PART ON STAGE

Comedian, Sought for a Week, Gives Himself Up to Face Indictment and Rushes to Theatre to Take Former Place.

WIFE AND LAWYERS WITH HIM, WALKS INTO OFFICE.

Held in $7.500 Bail, Furnished by Martin Engel, to Answer One Charge Made by Young Girl, His Counsel Explains He Seeks Vindication.

Raymond Hitchcock, the actor, walked into the Criminal Courts Building with his wife, Flora Zabelle, and his lawyers, at noon to-day, and surrendered himself to the District-Attorney. He was immediately taken before Judge Whitman, in the Court of General Sessions, arraigned on one of the six indictments against him, and released under $7,500 bail, which was furnished by Martin Engel.

Hitchcock went directly from his lawyer's office after filing the bail bond to the Astor Theatre. He entered the stage door just seven minutes before the curtain was to rise on "The Yankee Tourist," Wallace Beery going on.

track. The rain fell steadily all the afternoon. The course was deep in mud, and for five feet out from the rail was under water. Mud caused a wholesale scratching.

Favorite Finished Last,

Only four went to the post at the opening dash. Commedienne was favorite, but the wise play was on Frank Lord, which was backed from $ to 1 down to 13 to 5. He won after making the pace all the way. In the run to the turn W. H. Daniel ran with Frank Lord, and quit in the stretch, General Haley was an easy second five lengths in front of W. H. Daniel. The favorite, Commedienne, was lost. Glen Echo Won in Mud.

Glen Echo was the best of the mudders in the second race on the card. He just lasted long enough to win from the favorite. Lord Stanhope. Wes opened at 8 to 5 in the betting but will back to 1. He doesn't like rain and ran a bad race to-day. Consequently, and ran a bad race to-day. Consequently, played, the former closing at 11 to 5 after being as good as 4 to 1.

Starke for James B. Brady. Stake for James B. Brady.

Miller finally put one over when he got James B. Brady, owned by Frank Farrell, home first in the Bellrose Stakes. James B. Brady went to the front in the first sixteenth and thereafter was never in trouble. Farrell backed his colt but in the ring there was a disposition to play all around him. Arasee was second and Woodlane third.

Bouquet All the Way. Bouquet All the Way.

Bouquet all the way won the fifth race. King Cobali was second, but in the stretch he threatened to come on. McDaniel, however, shook Bouquet up a bit, and with a good ride brought lis mount home, half a length to the good. Miss, Sain was a hot tip, but his sudgarity, wasn't her day.
